

Classroom Requirements for TRAC2ES Training

1 computer for each student plus one for the instructor must be .gov or .mil computers.

All computers must be able to reach the internet.

Access to a printer, if possible a color printer. (for printing training certificates)

Ability to project onto a screen from one of the student's computers

A separate white board or flipchart

Access to the classroom either the afternoon prior to the first day of instruction or early morning the day instruction is to begin.

Contact name and number for classroom access.

POC and contact info for systems admin.